

"I certainly did look funny peering over those reading glasses"

"Well, if here isn't that old drawing daughter made of me when I was wearing those bothersome reading glasses! What a revelation to see ourselves as others see us!"

"I realize now how comical I appeared ducking my head to squint over my glasses when I wanted to see objects a few feet away—and what a nuisance to continually put them on and take them off all day long!"

KRYPTOK
GLASSES
THE INVISIBLE BIFOCALS

You are assured of getting the genuine Kryptoks when you come to us.

EYES EXAMINED LENSES GROUND

C. A. SPEAR

OPTOMETRIST
216 Main Street Up Stairs Franklin Square

WESTERLY

The second day of Westerly's 150th anniversary celebration was featured by the banquet of the Westerly Board of Trade held Monday evening at the Ocean House, Watch Hill. The banquet was a success from every viewpoint. A special car conveyed the guests to and from the Hill, leaving the Center about 7.45. Close to one hundred and fifty enjoyed the dinner. D. D. Hoagland, acting chairman of the 151st Amusement Train, one of the Yankee Division organization, was the speaker of the evening. Chaplain Hoagland went over to the other side as a Y. M. C. A. secretary, but consented to act as chaplain for the 151st Amusement Train as the organization had none at that time, and served until he returned to this country. Chaplain Hoagland was in France about eight months and was well equipped to treat his subject. The Re-making of America and France, James G. Hammond, secretary of the New London Chamber of Commerce, who was a guest at the banquet, delivered an interesting address. H. A. Clark, humorist and impersonator, from Boston, entertained the audience with a varied and diverting programme. An orchestra furnished music during the chicken dinner served the gathering.

Many admiring parents and grown-up friends of the pupils of West Broad street school viewed the drawing exhibit held Monday afternoon at the school house. The drawings were arranged by grades, starting with the kindergarten and ending with the eighth grade, the graduating class. The children did some remarkably fine work with the pen and crayon during the year, and those who attended the exhibition Monday were greatly interested in the work.

This year's class will be graduated Wednesday evening in the assembly room of the school. The programme arranged follows: The Great Division, Maurice, school orchestra; prayer, Rev. P. MacDonald; Washington, Paul E. Lewis; Origin of the Star Spangled Banner, Marabel C. Palmer; song, America's Message, Johnstone, seventh and eighth grades; The Death of Benedict Arnold, Martha E. Sweet, eighth grade; The Chambered Nautilus, Amy A. Peckham; Home Sweet Home, Elizabeth A. Austin; song, The Old Guard, Vezio, seventh and eighth grades; America's Part in the War, Herbert E. Sisson; class prophecy, Irene E. Gavitt; presentation of class gift, Edward B. Cundall; acceptance of gift, Supt. W. R. Snyder; song, Away to the Fields, Wilson, principal; awarding of diplomas, Supt. W. R. Snyder; Peleg S. Barber, prizes; Attorney George R. McKenna, Mrs. Job Thorp, Wm. A. Hillard, M. D. awarding of prizes, Attorney Geo. R. McKenna; song, Star Spangled Banner, the audience joining in the singing; Little Corporal, Laurendum, school orchestra.

Following close on the Old Home Week committee's announcement that the historic exhibit, which had been planned as a part of the week's celebration programme had been given up because of lack of time and because it was feared that it would not be possible to get together an exhibit of any magnitude, the Westerly Memorial Library decided to get up an exhibit of its own, independent of the historic exhibit committee. A large number of historic relics and curios which are carefully guarded by the library association were brought to light and Miss Coy, a member of the library staff, with the assistance of the caretakers, has arranged them in an attractive exhibit in the room where the collection of minerals is kept. The exhibit, which is a decidedly interesting one, may be seen by the public during library hours.

One of the historic relics to be seen is the flag carried in the Dorr Rebellion by William C. Pendleton, color bearer of the Westerly Company. It was presented the Westerly Memorial and Library Association by his sister, Harriet N. Pendleton. There is also with the flag a large picture of T. W. Dorr, inaugurated governor of Rhode Island May 3, 1842.

Among other curios is a piece of pine tree with a bullet from the mauka battlefield, also pipes made by Rhode Island soldiers during the Civil war, a footstool used by the great-grandmother of Mrs. W. H. Wilson, and a sperm oil lamp given by Fred L. Pierce.

A relic with a most interesting history is the rindlet, owned by the Westerly Historical society. This rindlet was among the articles stolen by Thomas Mount and others the night of Dec. 9, 1780, from the store connected with the dwelling house of Joseph Potter at Potter Hill, in the town of Westerly. At the time it was stolen it was full of rum. The rindlet was recovered with the other articles stolen, a few days later, when they were secreted in the town of North Stonington. Mount was hanged May 27, 1791, for the breaking, entering and larceny from a dwelling house in the night time, being the last person to suffer the death penalty in Washington county, Rhode Island. The rindlet finally found its way into the possession of Eugene B. Pendleton who gave it to the Historical Society at Westerly, March 15, 1912.

Other relics include: cane or dogstick, once the property of King Tom, Ninigret chief of the Narragansetts; canteen used in the revolutionary war, loaned by Charles A. Bradford; powder horns, once property of David Pendleton, 1770, grandfather of Charles E. W. Pendleton, who donated them to the library; picture of the battle flag used at Stonington, Aug. 10, 1814. This is the only photograph ever made of it. It is of the Village of Westerly, 1825. The picture shows Babcock Mansion, Westerly, colonial house, pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Babcock, Mr. Babcock's postmaster at Westerly in the old days. Bride's wedding shoes, about 100 years old, found in North Stonington by Mrs. John B. Brown, the place where the steamer Metis, wrecked at Watch Hill in 1872 also pictures of the wreck. Pocket book about 200 years old. Specimens of illustrations of the ship's log, contributed by L. T. C. Clawson. Beautiful collection of headwork made by the late Frank G. Rice. There are also views of the Ship Progress, originally known as The Charles Phelps, lying dismantled in the water, and a picture of the ship, which is interesting picture of the wreck of Feb. 14, 1855, and picture of the Spray, the small boat in which Captain Phelps sailed around the world. The picture was taken at Watch Hill.

Among old newspapers and documents on exhibit are the following: Connecticut "Almanack" 1767, minutes of the Stonington Association, held at New London, Oct. 17 and 18, 1747; book of old laws passed in 1667 by His Majesty's Colony of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations, at Newport; copies of the North American, dated Dec. 18, 1773, Newport Mercury, 1792, The Literary Echo, Westerly 1883, The Independent Chronicle, Boston, 1816.

There has been a tin basin, once the property of Peleg Saunders, presented the library association by his grandnephew, Samuel A. Saunders and several specimens of confederate money.

Commemorative exercises will feature the 150th anniversary programme today (Tuesday). The programme which will be held in the Elven House this evening at 8 o'clock will be as follows: Invocation, Charles O. Gavitt, leader; invocation, Rev. William F. Williams; tenor solo, Mrs. J. Brines, a graduate of the Westerly High school; address, Hon. Walter B. Vincent, associate justice of the supreme court of Rhode Island; former Westerly boy; orchestra selection; solo by Mr. Brines; chorus.

Details for the Merchants and the Manufacturers' parade to be held on Friday afternoon, have now been perfected. The parade will be formed in three divisions. The first division will report to H. Ledward, right on the corner of Broad and Granite streets. The line will form on the east side of Elm street. The second division will report to E. E. Whipple, right on the corner of Broad and Granite streets. The line will form on the east side of Elm street. The third division will report to H. M. Clarke, right on the corner of Grove avenue and Granite street. The line will form on the east side of Elm street.

The line of march will be as follows: Through Broad street to West Broad to Williams, to Palmer, to Moss, to West Broad, to High, to Grove avenue, to Granite, to Broad, to Main, to Cross, to Elm. Dismissed at the corner of Elm and Broad.

The reviewing stand will be in front of the town hall on Broad street. In case some floats cannot make the turn from Main to Cross streets, the parade will continue to Beach and Elm.

The marshal will be Abraham P. Dutton and his aides will be Charles H. Ledward, Everett E. Whipple, Henry M. Clarke, William Mitchell. The three divisions will be made up as follows: First Division—Westerly band, executive committee, main committee, Central Labor union, Grand Army of the Republic, Wm. Clark Thread Co., and male spinners. P. H. Opie Co., Westerly Industrial & Improvement Co., Frank N. Wilcox, Westerly Textile Co., H. T. Kenyon & Co., Whitall Electric Co., Laurel Glen, Twine Co., Westerly Sun, Fisher Bros., H. L. Dunning, Boston Furniture Co., Crumley Quarry Co., Smith's Flower

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WOOD'S BOSTON COFFEE

WAIT!

Don't Buy Until You See What We Shall Offer You In

Desirable BUILDING LOTS at Trading Cove Terrace

THIS PROPERTY IS LOCATED AT TRADING COVE ON THE NEW LONDON PIKE, JUST BELOW THE NORWICH GOLF CLUB, FROM WHERE YOU HAVE A BEAUTIFUL VIEW OF THE THAMES RIVER AND SURROUNDING COUNTRY.

ALL OUR LOTS ARE HIGH AND DRY, FREE FROM SHRUBS AND ROCKS.

THIS LAND WAS PURCHASED FROM THE EASTERN CONNECTICUT POWER COMPANY THROUGH THE REAL ESTATE OFFICE OF JOHN A. MORAN & SON, AND OUR TITLE IS ABSOLUTE.

THOUSANDS OF DOLLARS' WORTH OF SILVERWARE GIVEN AWAY FREE ON THE LAND. SEE OUR WINDOW DISPLAY IN THE THAYER BUILDING.

Titus Land Company

Home Office Providence, R. I. Local Office Room 113 Thayer Building, Norwich, Conn.

NORWICH TOWN

Rev. M. W. Hildreth of Cromwell preached a timely sermon at the First Congregational church, Sunday morning using the text found in Micah 6, verses 8 and 9. Thoughts brought out were, The world is calling today for the man who is good, true, honest and upright; such will be leaders, those who can carry on to victory. The urgent need of the twentieth century can never be met until men and women do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with their God. We must stop going through forms and ceremonies if we are to have a religion that rings true to the realities about us. If you multiply devotion at the expense of obedience to what purpose is your manifold sacrifice, cries the prophet. Our conscience and our visions should result in a life of convictions in these great and dangerous days that will make for right daily living. To do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with God are the foundation stones of the temple of love erected to God.

At the close of the term in the village schools there were pleasing exercises and recitations. Ida Fontaine won the scholarship, having an average of 87 in examinations. Other prize winners are Stephen Kowal in bird study; Bertha Blawie, Blanchette Bertha Koran and Dorothy in flower study; and Ruth Pray for the best plant grown.

A number of women members from the First Congregational church will go to Norwich, Wednesday, for the annual meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peck of Westchester were recent guests of Mr. Peck's brother, Mr. George A. Peck of Otisland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins of West Torrington, have been entertaining for a few days, Mrs. Robbins' cousin, Mrs. John Standish of New London.

After spending several days with Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus, Miss Anna Huntington returned Saturday to her home in the city.

Miss Lena Wolf of Columbia was a guest Sunday of Miss Alice M. Smith at her home on Town street.

Carlos Eccleston has returned to East Glastonbury, after spending the week at his home on New London turnpike.

Benjamin L. Kennedy has returned from a visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary White of Brooklyn.

Rev. H. W. Hildreth of Cromwell, who preached at the First Congregational church Sunday morning was the guest while in town of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Avery of West Town street.

Miss Josephine and Mabel Rogers were callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Robbers returned Sunday to Boston after passing several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury O. Rogers of Upper Washington street. Mrs. Rogers accompanied her husband to Maine for a stay of several weeks.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

BALLOUVILLE

The cottage meeting this week is to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McGregor.

Mrs. James Cornell from New York has arrived at her new home here.

Mr. and Mrs. William Cook were at Chestnut Hill Sunday.

Mrs. S. Alberta Caffrey and Mrs. Gertrude Cook gave the children of the Junior League a picnic Thursday at the farm of James Cornell. About ten were there.

The lightning in Saturday evening's fierce thunder storm struck both the Ballouville mill and postoffice, but did little damage.

Joseph E. Pray, who has been boarding at Putnam, begins this week to come home from his work in the city to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Pray.

Mrs. Carrie McGregor of Woodstock, who is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McGregor Sunday, the brother of the latter also called from Providence.

At the close of the term in the village schools there were pleasing exercises and recitations. Ida Fontaine won the scholarship, having an average of 87 in examinations. Other prize winners are Stephen Kowal in bird study; Bertha Blawie, Blanchette Bertha Koran and Dorothy in flower study; and Ruth Pray for the best plant grown.

A number of women members from the First Congregational church will go to Norwich, Wednesday, for the annual meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Peck of Westchester were recent guests of Mr. Peck's brother, Mr. George A. Peck of Otisland avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Robbins of West Torrington, have been entertaining for a few days, Mrs. Robbins' cousin, Mrs. John Standish of New London.

After spending several days with Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus, Miss Anna Huntington returned Saturday to her home in the city.

Miss Lena Wolf of Columbia was a guest Sunday of Miss Alice M. Smith at her home on Town street.

Carlos Eccleston has returned to East Glastonbury, after spending the week at his home on New London turnpike.

Benjamin L. Kennedy has returned from a visit with his mother, Mrs. Mary White of Brooklyn.

Rev. H. W. Hildreth of Cromwell, who preached at the First Congregational church Sunday morning was the guest while in town of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight W. Avery of West Town street.

Miss Josephine and Mabel Rogers were callers Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Robbers returned Sunday to Boston after passing several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Woodbury O. Rogers of Upper Washington street. Mrs. Rogers accompanied her husband to Maine for a stay of several weeks.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gager of Wauwecus street included their daughter, Mrs. Carrie Abbott and Mr. and Mrs. George Marsh of Hartford, also Dr. and Mrs. Edward Fox of Westerfield.

Mrs. George A. Peck and son Crosby Peck of Cromwell, who were returned Saturday evening from a visit of several days, with Mrs. F. D. Peck of Westchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Smith and son Raymond mid of Williams street, Mrs. Smith's father Charles F. Burke of Lafayette street and Mr. Smith's nephew, George Smith of Upper Washington street made up an automobile party that went to Riverside park, New London, where they witnessed the boat race Friday.

Miss Lillian Stetson, who for the past two years has resided with Mr. and Mrs. William S. Geer of Washington street, has left town to spend a week in Central Village at the home of her brother, Mr. Stetson, after which she will go to Manchester to spend the summer with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. George Rogers of Wauwecus Hill.

NOANK

The visiting companies of Stonington Steamer, the Veterans and Cyclones of Westerly were present at the firemen's fair Saturday night and after enjoying the fair and dancing adjourned to the firehouse for an oyster stew served by Steward Beebe. Although under heavier expense than ever this year, the fair is expected to surpass financially any the company has held, and the boys feel well rewarded for their efforts.

Mrs. Frank Collins of Hartford, Miss Elizabeth Finley and Miss Margaret Stewart of Westerly were guests over Sunday at the home of Mrs. Lewis C. Main.

Capt. H. F. King of the Montauk coast guard station spent the week end with his brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Davis has launched a sailboat from his yard for Mystic parties.

Capt. Stephen Bagell's fishing schooner Star has returned to port laden with cod and halibut.

Several boats have left the village for Block Island for swordfish.

Walter Fitch has returned from Stonington, where she was a guest of her daughter, Mrs. Jerome S. Anderson.

Always Kept Busy.

There may be a house shortage, but Mrs. Fitch has returned from keep on doing a land office business. —Charleston News and Courier.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

MONTVILLE

Rev. George C. Chappell of New Haven, a former pastor of the Union Baptist church, spent several days last week calling on friends in the village. He also led the Thursday night prayer meeting, which was largely attended. While in town Mr. Chappell was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Allen.

Rev. Walter P. Buck of New London supplied the pulpit of the Baptist church Sunday morning, taking for his theme The Parables.

Schools in the village closed Monday. The graduating exercises will be held in Assembly hall this (Tuesday) evening.

Mrs. Alma Smith of Meriden and Mrs. John Adams of this place were guests of their mother, Mrs. Mary J. Bogue, of Yantic, Saturday and helped celebrate her 83d birthday.

Always Kept Busy.

There may be a house shortage, but Mrs. Fitch has returned from keep on doing a land office business. —Charleston News and Courier.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA

CASTORIA